CHARITY PLEA: URGENT ASSISTANCE NEEDED FOR INDIAN SEAFARERS AND THEIR FAMILIES

Action Required: Members and associations are urged to contribute to the Seafarers International Relief Fund that is launching this week as part of a collaborative effort between ICS and leading maritime charities to help Indian Seafarers and their families that are impacted by the current COVID-19 crisis.

ICS members and associations are invited to take note and donate generously to the new Seafarers International Relief Fund that will go live tomorrow, on Wednesday 5th May.

ICS helped coordinate the creation of the fund, which is led and run by maritime charities, after being approached by numerous ship owners and managers to see what could be done to help Indian seafarers and their families affected by the COVID-19 crisis.

We would ask that you share details of the Fund with your members so they are able to contribute. The Fund is looking for significant contributions by the maritime industry to help in this time of need.

ICS has coordinated with leading maritime charities including the Seafarers' Charity, The Mission to Seafarers, ISWAN, Sailors' Society and Stella Maris to set up the Relief Fund which will serve as a central fund to respond to the increasing and desperate needs of seafarers resulting from the pandemic. Its initial focus will be to assist Indian seafarers and their families, but the Fund will also help seafarers across the world.

More information on the Fund and how to contribute can be found in the flyer in Annex A.

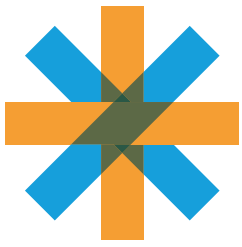

Donations can be made ahead of tomorrow's official launch.

An official press release will be sent out as soon as available. We encourage you to follow ICS on twitter for more updates and to show support and amplify the campaign.

Seafarers International Relief Fund

Urgent assistance needed for Indian Seafarers and their families.

Please give what you can.

The Seafarers International Relief Fund has been established to create a central fund to respond to the increasing and desperate needs of seafarers resulting from the pandemic.

Its initial focus will be to assist Indian seafarers and their families, but the Fund will also help seafarers across the world.

The Relief Fund is being coordinated by the Seafarers Charity, a grant funder, and is supported by the maritime charities working alongside industry players. Funds raised will be distributed via the supporting charities listed below.
