Roderick Cordara Q.C., Essex Court Chambers

Roderick Cordara has an expansive commercial litigation and arbitration practice and acts as adviser and advocate in a spectrum of courts and arbitration tribunals worldwide. He has offices in London, Singapore and Sydney. He is admitted to appear in the Courts of the United Kingdom, the European Court of Justice, the Singapore International Commercial Court, and the State and Federal Courts of Australia. He has arbitrated in cases in Europe, Asia, and Africa. His principal practice is advocacy. He also sits as arbitrator. He is a silk in both UK and Australia.

Can Yeginsu, Istanbul Arbitration Association, Founder Member, and Barrister, 4 New Square Chambers

Can Yeginsu is a barrister at 4 New Square Chambers where he undertakes a broad range of commercial disputes work, specialising in international and commercial litigation and in particular international commercial arbitration. Can also practises in the areas of constitutional law, sports law, public law and human rights law.

Recognised as a leading barrister in Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners, Can advises and appears as counsel in arbitrations under all of the main international institutions as well as in cases before the UK Supreme Court, the Court of Appeal, the High Court, and the European Court of Human Rights. Educated at University College, Oxford, Princeton University and Harvard Law School, Can was featured last year as one of ten "Stars at the Bar" by Legal Week Magazine where he was described as "an excellent mind with a real talent for picking out the key issues" "very persuasive" "older and wiser than his call suggests...really inspires confidence." Can is a member of the LCIA, ICC, ASA, as well as the IBA and the COMBAR. He is currently serving as Vice-Chair of the British Turkish Lawyers Association and is a founding member of the Istanbul Arbitration Association.

Murray Rosen QC, Barrister, 4 New Square

Murray Rosen QC has been one of the busiest international advocates of the last 20 years, as well as acting as judge, arbitrator and mediator throughout that time. In 2014 he left Herbert Smith Freehills, where he had established their pioneering advocacy unit in 2005, to resume independent practice. As well as continuing as a strategic adviser and expert on English law and procedure, he now concentrates on "neutral" roles, sitting, among other things, as a deputy High Court Judge in the Chancery Division in London, as a Deemster in the High Court of the Isle of Man, and as an arbitrator (FCI Arb, Member LCIA), mediator (CEDR and ADR Group accredited) and tribunal chairman.

Apart from his extensive experience in cross-jurisdictional commercial disputes and remedies, including joint ventures, natural resources and fraud, he is unusually qualified in culture, media and sports disputes. For example, he has been a chairman on the panels for Sport Resolutions and the Football Disciplinary Commission since each began, is a member of the MCC and Arsenal FC and a recent graduate of the Courtauld Institute in history of art. A legal directory once described him as "tactically flawless ... with a weighty reputation". He is an arbitrator who also has the skills and knowledge of an experienced judge and a leading advocate who represented governments, agencies and businesses around the world, as well as participating fully as a partner at a foremost international law firm.

Sami Houerbi, Director, ICC Dispute, Resolution Services for Eastern Mediterranean, Middle-East & Africa, Partner, BKH Tunisia

Sami Houerbi is the Director of the ICC Eastern Mediterranean, Middle-East and Africa ICC Dispute Resolution Services, where he is in charge of raising awareness about Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanisms throughout the region and promoting ICC Arbitration and ADR Rules. Prior to that, he was member of the Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration in Paris, where he was directly involved in the administration and managing ICC arbitration proceedings. Mr Houerbi is a registered lawyer of the Tunis Bar Association and the Head of the Arbitration Department at Boussayene Knani Houerbi Law firm (www.bkhassociates.com), which areas of practice include mainly: Corporate Law, Arbitration and Litigation. He holds a post-graduate degree in international law from the University of Paris II and an LL.M in German Law from the Ludwig-Maximilian University in Munich.

Halil Ercument Erdem, Senior Partner, Erdem & Erdem Law Office, Turkey; Professor (E.) of Commercial Law, Galatasaray University

He is the Senior Partner of Erdem & Erdem Law Office in Istanbul and Izmir, Turkey and Professor (E.) of Commercial Law at Galatasaray University (Istanbul). He holds a LL.M from Ankara University (1986 with honours) and Ph.D from University of Fribourg (1990).

H. Ercument Erdem is the member of Istanbul Bar Association, the Vice-Chair of the ICC Commission on Commercial Law and Practice and Member of the ICC Incoterms Experts Group, the Council Member of the ICC Institute of World Business Law and the Member of the ICC Turkish National Committee Arbitration, the Council Member of Association Henri Capitant des Amis de la Culture Juridique Française, the Advisory Council of Banking and Commercial Law Research Institute, the President of Mergers and Acquisitions Commission of the Competition Association Advisory Board, Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage (ASA) and International Bar Association (IBA).

He specializes in the field of international commercial law, competition law and arbitration and has published several books and articles on these issues. He acts as sole arbitrator, chairman, co-arbitrator or counsel in numerous cases under different arbitration rules (ICC, UNCITRAL, SRIA, AAA, TRAC, Istanbul Chamber of Commerce, Ad Hoc). Prof Dr Erdem has collaborated for many years with the ICC and has actively participated in several ICC Task Forces, drafting model contracts for international business (e.g. agency, distribution, confidentiality, mergers & acquisition, occasional intermediaries, Incoterms).

Markian Malskyy, Partner, Head of Alternative Dispute Resolution Practice, Head of West, Arzinger

Since 2010 Mr. Malskyy is a Head of Alternative Dispute Resolution Desk at Arzinger. He has extensive experience in corporate dispute settlement in the energy sector, contractual disputes, trade and real estate disputes, enforcement of foreign court judgments and arbitral awards, real estate and M&A transactions. He handled cases under the Arbitration Rules of ICSID, ICC, SCC, UNCITRAL, LCIA and ICAC. In total Markian Malskyy has been involved in settlement of over 300 disputes. In 2012 Markian Malskyy has obtained his Ph.D. with thesis: "Arbitration agreement as condition for dispute resolution in international commercial arbitration" at the Kyiv National Taras Shevchenko University. Prior to joining Arzinger attorney-at-law Malskyy worked as a lawyer in the international arbitration team in the firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Paris.

He is a recommended arbitrator of a number of arbitral institutions, among which are Vienna International Arbitral Centre, Dubai International Arbitration Centre, Czech Arbitration Court, Arbitration Center of Mexico, Nowy Tomyśl Chamber of Commerce (Poland), Riga International Commercial Arbitration Court, Kazakhstani International Arbitrage, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration (KLRC), Arbitration Court attached to the Lviv Chamber of Commerce.

Nebahat Arslan, Partner, Blavo and Co Solicitors

Nebahat is a solicitor advocate in England and Wales. Nebahat is the Partner at Blavo and Co Solicitors, based in Central London, which has 17 offices nationwide. Nebahat focuses on international, cross-border litigation and commercial arbitration. She regularly acts for oil and gas merchandises, Blue Chip companies in the UK, Turkey, Qatar, and India. In addition to her commercial work, Nebahat's experience extends to variety of matters including brand protection and deals with IP infringements.

Nebahat also has extensive experience in seeking urgent injunctive relief, including, worldwide freezing injunctions. In 2014, Nebahat was nominated by 'Thomson Reuters' 'Super Lawyers' division as a 'Rising Star' in the U.K.

Ismail Esin, Managing Partner, Esin Attorney Partnership, a member firm of Baker & McKenzie

Ismail Esin has more than 15 years of experience advising clients in arbitration and mergers and acquisitions matters. He is listed in The International Who's Who for mergers and acquisitions and commercial arbitration and in Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 for Corporate/M&A and Dispute Resolution. He has lectured on law of obligations and mergers and acquisitions law at Marmara, Galatasaray, Yeditepe and Bilgi universities in Istanbul, and writes extensively on these topics.

Ismail advises banks, multinational companies, governments and private equity funds on investments and major projects in Turkey, the Middle East and the CIS. His work focuses primarily on the energy, infrastructure, construction, telecom and healthcare industries. He also acts as an arbitrator and as counsel in arbitration matters, especially focusing on arbitration of M&A transactions. He recently co-edited Arbitration in Turkey published by Kluwer Law International, the first comprehensive guide to arbitration in Turkey published by Kluwer. He was also recently appointed as an advisory board member for the Istanbul Arbitration Center.

Victor P. Leginsky, Chartered Arbitrator B.Ed., J.D., FCI Arb

Victor P. Leginsky, Canadian citizen, is an experienced international arbitrator and Barrister & Solicitor, resident in Dubai, UAE since April 2007. Victor has prior high-level mediation experience having been appointed by the Attorney General of British Columbia, Canada, to be the Chair of the Manufactured Home Park Dispute Resolution Committee. He brings over 25 years of arbitration experience in Canada.
